GET INTO GOOD TROUBLE WITH US

HOST YOUR OWN SCREENING

Join thousands of people across the country who are coming together to watch John Lewis: Good Trouble, host a conversation, and TAKE ACTION. This quick guide will help you get started.

1. WATCH THE FILM

Watch individually and then come together to discuss. To do this, you can rent or watch on demand here: JOHNLEWISGOODTROUBLE.COM/WATCH-AT-HOME/

2. SET UP YOUR CONVERSATION

To set up a screening, you will need to consider the following:

AUDIENCE.
Who will be coming to your discussion? Will you invite speakers and have a panel?

SET A GOAL FOR YOUR CONVERSATION.
What is your intention for screening this film? What do you want people to do after watching? For example, after the film set up a voting day plan with your family and friends.

SET AN AGENDA.
Based on your audience and goals, how will your conversation run? Consider introductions, intention setting, and time for open dialogue.

THE VIRTUAL DISCUSSION PLATFORM.
Designate a location where the virtual discussion will take place and invite your audience. Zoom and Google Meet offer free video conferencing services.

SET AN AGENDA.
Based on your audience and goals, how will your discussion run? Consider introductions, intention setting, and time for open dialogue.

SHARE THE GOOD TROUBLE HANDBOOK.
This handbook provides steps to make good trouble around voting and civic engagement inspired by John Lewis’ life and the documentary.
